

All Knowing God

Anne Thomas 9th May 2011

We are created to display Gods glory
How we choose to wear that glory is the witness to the rest of the world
I believe that once they catch the revelation of how much God loves them will never have to worry again

John 10:14 I am the good shepherd and I know and recognize my own and my own know and recognize me.

He knows everything, he is never amazed, discovers anything or surprised
God does not need Google!
He knows all the facts, and the end result

Omniscience - God is all knowing

Psalms 139:1 O Lord you have searched me and you know me

The entire psalm is designed to exalted God

God has searched us

Searched me "chakartani" - thou has investigated me

He has thoroughly aquatinted himself with our whole soul and conduct - he doesn't search us to get to know us

Psalm 139:13 for you did form my inward parts

Psalm 139:2a you know when I sit and when I rise

Psalm 139:2b you perceive my thoughts from afar

You can't hide your thoughts from God

Perceive my thoughts - "lerei"

Psalms 139:3 You discern my goings out and my lying down; You are familiar with all my ways

Discern - "zeritha" to winnow

God winnows our lives - sorts every detail of our life out. Winnow the chaff of our life off so the we can resemble him more

Corn grower - small patch that he looked after and it was not going well - his neighbors was going well - so he borrows the corn from his neighbors without then knowing taking his son with him, the farmer looks left, right, front and back and then he starts to go out and take the corn then his son says "dad you forget to look up!"

Psalm 139:4 before a word is on my tongue you know it completely oh Lord.

Psalm 139:5a You hem me in - behind and before

Surrounded my God protection - all the way around me are covered

Hem a piece a cloth - to gather up a cut edge in such a way as to stop it unraveling - we are the fabric of his life

Psalm 139:5b you have laid your hand upon me

He says I am here with you - Selah moment

His strengthening arm is there

Psalm 139:6 King David - your knowledge is too enormous for me

John 10:14 I am the good shepherd and I know and recognize my own and my own know and recognize me.
