John 4

Jesus wasn't afraid to cross social barriers, he wasn't concerned with what other people thought he should be, he was simply who God told him to be.

Who is JESUS

The Gospel is for EVERYONE

Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let the one who hears say, "Come!" Let the one who is thirsty come; and let the one who wishes take the free gift of the water of life.

We need to be able to offer Gods love to everyone.

John 4:39-42 Many of the Samaritans from that town believed him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me everything I ever did." So when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days. And because of his words many more became believers. They said to the woman, "We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Saviour of the world."

John 4:10 Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

John 4:10 Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life".

Loving people makes them thirst for Jesus, it intrigues them, draws them in.

Jesus is fishing for the woman, he's trying to win her.
